Mauritius

Absolute relaxation

Located 1200 miles off the south-east coast of Africa and in the heart of the Indian Ocean, Mauritius is one of the most beautiful islands on earth.

Small, untamed yet sophisticated, Mauritius is a true tropical paradise. Just 38 miles long and 29 miles wide, it has been occupied by the Portuguese, Dutch, French and the British. With French-based cuisine, British infrastructure and the most welcoming of people, this cosmopolitan democracy within the British Commonwealth sets the pace for pretty much the best of everything.

Even the keenest of golfers will be amazed at the strength-in-depth of the courses - there are six superb layouts. The weather is ideal for short-sleeve golf all year-round and the picture-postcard beaches and warm waters provide the perfect frame to a glamorous sunshine golf holiday.

Ideal for couples and small groups, Mauritius is about relaxing, enjoying the weather and first-class resorts, eating exceptionally well and playing as much or as little golf as you want.

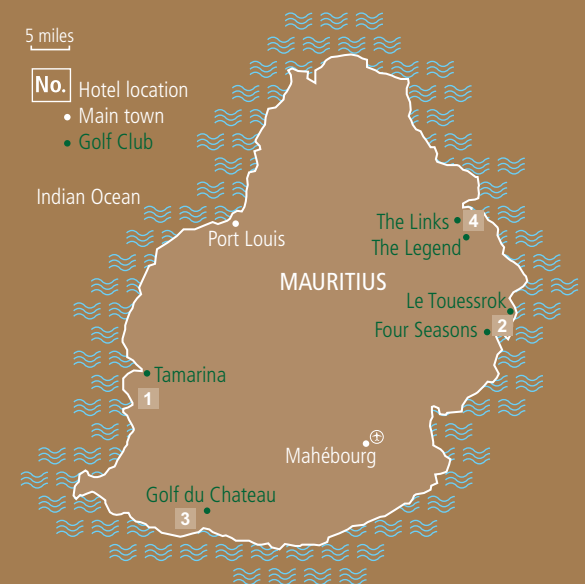

Combining luxury with value, we believe it's the best 'exotic golf' destination in the world. No wonder more and more clients are making Mauritius part of their annual golf plans.

The Legend

Par 73. 6616 yards.

The Links

Par 71. 6537 yards.

Our residents of both Constance hotels can play either course for free every day.

The original Legend course is pretty, tough in places and encouraging in others. You can certainly take your driver out of the bag but you still need to play well to post a good score.

Despite the name, The Links isn't a links layout but it should be played like one. There are few hazards and fairways are generous but the greens are not large. It's a perfect companion to The Legend. Buggies are compulsory on The Links and payable locally.

Anahita The Resort  Beau Champ [2]

At a glance

- Total 'a la carte' services
- Spacious residences
- Free daily golf at Four Seasons

Anahita The Resort offers the highest level of luxury in the most exclusive and privileged of island hideaways.

With the luxury of hotel living combined with the space and freedom of your own private residence, it's perfect for a long and very relaxing break.

Each one-, two- or three-bedroom residence comes with 24 hour Concierge, fully-fitted gourmet kitchen and personal residence host incorporating twice-daily maid service.

The residences combine contemporary elegance with traditional island feel. The interiors echo the natural beauty of the setting, with soothing colours and textures creating a sleek elegance.

An essential of Mauritian life is the great outdoors so light and airy rooms extend on to the large Indian Ocean- or golf-facing veranda, complete with relaxing plunge pool.

Located and sheltered from the seas, the residences rest behind a natural lagoon within 213 hectares of wildlands so you only have to "deal with" the softest of waves and the finest of sands. It's definitely "I don't want to go home!".

At Anahita, anything is possible – you can stay in your residence and have everything "at home" or you can use the resort facilities - from quad biking to horse riding in the mountains nearby, from fishing to water-skiing, spa treatments in huts on the beach or in your own residence, boutiques, resort infinity pools, a fitness centre, tennis and professionally-managed children's club. Everything you need is here.

Designed by Ernie Els, the latest golf course in Mauritius is surely one of the best.

Large fairways, five sets of tees and six stunning ocean-front holes culminate in a final shot that is among the most spectacular in the world.

Built to USGA standards, it is the first of its kind in Mauritius. Carefully woven into the tropical sanctuary, the course is set against lush mountains and fringed by the vast crystal-clear lagoon.

The Four Seasons Golf Academy offers instruction and private lessons with a studio equipped with live video computer analysis of your swing. One-hour golf clinics are offered daily for beginners on a complimentary basis to our Resort guests.

Cocooned within a private sanctuary, the Four Seasons Resort embraces views of the blue lagoon and green-blanketed mountains.

The accommodation is made up of individual Pool Villas and two- and three-bedroom Residences, all offering veranda living with inspiring views over the lagoon, mangrove or gardens.

Indoor features include king-size bed, natural stone floors, deep-soak tub and walk-in closet. Outdoor features include a private garden with shower, covered veranda, dining and living area and a private plunge pool for each villa.

There are also larger villas for families and groups of friends.

The choice of dining is superb with French, Italian, Pan-Asian and local cuisine served in the three main restaurants and all-day dining at the Clubhouse. The 'Obar' is situated just off the main lobby and is ideal for a pre-dinner cocktail, light fare or an after dinner tittle. In-villa dining is available round the clock and there is also a grocery stocking service for the Residence Villas.

The over-water spa comprises 12 treatment rooms on stilts. There are double rooms for couples, steam room, hammam and sauna as well as a fully-stocked boutique. The fitness centre boasts state-of-the-art equipment with a lap pool and Astro Wimbledon tennis courts for sport fans.

All non-motorised water sports and waterskiing are free of charge. With three sandy beaches, complimentary Kids for All Seasons and Young Adults Club, four swimming pools and varied island outings, this is a truly great resort for all.

Four Seasons at its typically-perfect best.

TARGET

Tamarina

Par 72. 6716 yards.

- Great views
- Several challenging holes

Situated on the south-west coast, the championship course extends over 43 hectares of a former hunting estate.

It covers rugged savannah land, framed with mature trees and crossed by the Rempart River. This is nature at its most impressive.

The holes and surrounds have been specially designed to give spectacular views of Mount Rempart and of Tamarin Bay. Golfers will love the contrast between the rough surroundings and the smoothness of the rolling greens and wide fairways.

Beautiful target golf.
