CHAMPIONSHIP 🏆 🏌

Cornelia Faldo

Par 72. 6566 yards. Slope 132

- Immaculate condition
- Challenging course

Nick Faldo's first design in Turkey is already much admired and feared by novice golfers.

There are three loops of nine holes set in a pine forest with a broad dune ridge running through the centre. The many elevated tees and greens and water hazards encourage accurate iron play.

This is an excellent addition to the courses on offer and a firm favourite with low handicappers.

CHAMPIONSHIP 🏌️ ⚡

Pines

Par 72. 7039 yards.

- Testing design
- Fast greens

Measuring over 7000 yards from the back tees, this is the tougher of the two courses.

The course cuts through a forest of mature pines, with a number of lakes and greenside bunkers protecting the greens. The course opens up with a fairly easy Par-5 but don't relax too much or the holes around the turn will catch you out! Designed by PGA Design Consulting and certainly worth playing at least twice during your stay.

PARKLAND 🏌️ ⚡

Dunes

Par 69. 6213 yards.

- Great finishing hole
- Delightful holiday golf

A nice gentle test to set your game up for the week ahead.

The Dunes is more open than the Pines but nevertheless requires caution as water comes into play - particularly on the 18th...An island green right in front of the watching clubhouse spectators!

TARGET

Antalya, The Pasha

Par 72. 6305 yards. Slope 124

- Adjacent to Sirene Golf-Hotel
- Good design for all levels

Suitable for all levels, the Pasha is the shorter course but by no means a stroll in the park.

It will test your skills with a combination of different challenges. Tricky dog-legs, cleverly-placed bunkers and undulating greens will ensure that even the more experienced golfer must think over each shot carefully. The fairways are fairly generous but beware the lakes! 20 miles from Antalya.

CHAMPIONSHIP

Antalya, The Sultan

Par 72. 7052 yards. Slope 135

- Challenging hazards
- Great finishing hole

A fantastic course and not for the faint-hearted.

One look at the course planner and you may be unnerved by the amount of blue, but play sensibly off the tees and you're in for a treat. From the 1st to the 18th, you will be tested with your drives and approach shots, (not to mention your putting).

With a backdrop of towering umbrella pines, crystal clear lakes and the snow-capped Taurus mountains, this is a spectacular course. Easy walking.

CHAMPIONSHIP

National

Par 72. 6855 yards.

- Top European course
- Superb setting

Sculpted fairways, glistening white bunkers and velvet greens, the National was the first international-standard golf club on the Turkish Mediterranean coast.

Carved through a forest of eucalyptus and pine trees and with a backdrop of snow-capped mountains and an abundance of natural lakes, the National will test and please players of all abilities. 20 miles from Antalya.

LINKS

Lykia Links

Par 72. 6536 yards.

- First links course in Turkey
- Pete Dye designs

The prevailing breezes off the Mediterranean Sea will provide golfers with Turkey's first links challenge.

There are four holes running along the sea which demand skilled shots and the finishing 18th with mounds on the left and a turtle back green will require the golfer to approach the green with caution.

This course requires 'punch and run' shots and intelligent play to avoid all the trademark Pete Dye hazards.

FOREST

Gloria Old & New

Old: Par 72. 6799 yards. Slope 132.
New: Par 72. 6930 yards.

- Two super courses
- Fantastic facilities

The original Old course meanders through pine woodland, featuring seven lakes and 63 bunkers.

The new course is a tougher challenge and requires a little more thought and precision. The Signature hole is the Par-3 17th inspired by the famous hole at TPC Sawgrass; an island green where the only escape is to land on the short stuff! 20 miles from Antalya.

FOREST

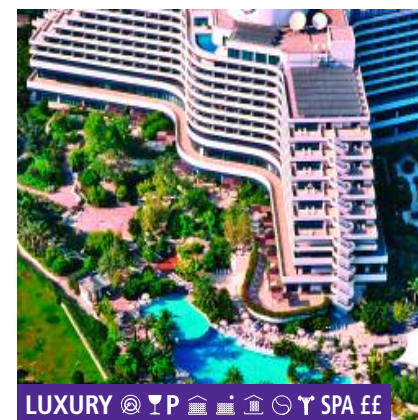

The Montgomerie

Par 72. 6424 yards.

- Brand new Montgomerie design
- Nine-hole Academy course

Colin Montgomerie's first design in Turkey was certainly worth the wait.

Opened in September 2008, the course winds its way through mature pine forests and sand dunes. It's a very fine test of golf, sure to be enjoyed by all.
