Belgium

A winner every time!

With easy access, a fine choice of hotels and some seriously good courses, Bruges and Waterloo have become firm favourites with our clients.

Bruges is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe... "the Venice of the North"; there are countless bars and restaurants, great shopping and canals, churches and museums to enjoy. And all this, just 70 miles from Calais. To make the most out of the fascinating city, we've chosen some super hotels. The golf satisfies everyone – from European Top 100 designs to hidden gems – and it is of no surprise that Bruges is becoming an annual "pilgrimage" for golfing chums and societies.

Waterloo is also a great success. Just two hours from Calais, you've got the sights and attractions of Brussels and Waterloo for the evening and 11 courses within 30 minutes for during the day. The historic battlefields where Wellington defeated Napoleon and the medieval abbey in Villers-la-Ville are must sees.

Here's an idea!

Why not play golf in three countries in three days! Dunkirk in France, Royal Zoute in Belgium and Oostburg in Holland.

Royal Zoute

Par 72. 6790 yards. Slope 132.

- European Top 100 course
- 36 holes

This is undoubtedly one of the best links courses in Europe, and was designed by the great Harry Colt.

Built over a hundred years ago, the course at first does not look too tough but, when the wind picks up, hitting the fairways is paramount and negotiating the fast greens is another story.

The course meanders through dunes and silver birches and has earned tributes from the likes of Palmer and Faldo. 13 miles north of Bruges.

CREME DE LA CREME 🏌️ ⚔️

Damme Golf & Country Club

Par 72. 6631 yards. Slope 131.

- Warm welcome
- Nice clubhouse

Just 15 minutes from Bruges, this is more than good holiday golf.

The parkland course is dotted with ponds and cuts through the local forest. The greens are well-maintained and you are assured of a warm welcome and good food back in the clubhouse. Free practice balls, soup and a sandwich in low season. Four miles north of Bruges.

PARKLAND 🏌️ ⚔️

Oostburg

Par 73. 7042 yards. Slope 130.

- Fabulous clubhouse
- Well-maintained

Technically we're cheating here as Oostburg is just over the border into the Netherlands, but the 30-minute drive is certainly worth it!

A relatively new course that has matured nicely and boasts a stunning clubhouse (with snooker room) lived in by the owners. There are some great holes but the Pelicans on the 9th and 14th greens also provide lovely memories. Lots of water and a real test from the Whites. 19 miles north-east of Bruges.

Royal Waterloo

La Marache. Par 73. 6475 yards. Slope 125.

Le Lion. Par 72. 6410 yards. Slope 125.

- Top class courses
- Secluded setting

The club blends harmoniously into the splendid Brabant countryside of fields, valleys and woodland.

Near the historic battlefields of Waterloo lie two courses, both of championship standard and always in excellent condition. Some hilly holes. Free afternoon golf on the 9-hole course for our clients. Four miles from Waterloo.

Sept Fontaines

Le Chateau. Par 72. 6150 yards. Slope 123.

La Foret. Par 67. 5360 yards. Slope 120.

- Delightful clubhouse
- Superb condition

Set in thickly-wooded countryside, Sept Fontaines has two main courses.

The longer and more demanding Chateau course is laid out over wooded hills and fields and the La Foret course has narrow fairways and physically demanding terrain. The clubhouse provides comforts appreciated by all. Four miles north-west of Waterloo.

Bercuit

Par 72. 6525 yards. Slope 129.

- Warm welcome
- Good challenge

The scenic valleys of Brabant Wallon give way to rolling fairways and stiff climbs.

Here is a course which doesn't know the meaning of half-measures and calls for excellent physical and golfing prowess. A Robert Trent Jones Senior-designed course, Bercuit has been selected several times for the European Ladies Masters. 23 miles east of Waterloo. Buggies recommended.

Chateau de la Tournette

USA Course. Par 72. 6185 yards. Slope 130.

UK Course. Par 72. 6210 yards. Slope 128.

- Two courses
- Super clubhouse

Set in a superb rural landscape with a host of bunkers and lakes.

With aesthetic and daunting obstacles, the Tournette club offers two formidable courses: The American and The English. The latter resembles an inland links with big, elevated greens well-protected by pot bunkers, while the American course begins in woodland before testing your ability with its own 'Amen Corner' on the back nine. 12 miles south-west of Waterloo.

Hulencourt

Par 72. 6326 yards. Slope 123.

- Free post-round drink
- Perfect for societies

Built on a historical 17th-Century estate, the exclusive Golf Club d'Hulencourt welcomes guests in the finest traditions of golf.

With strategically positioned hazards and sometimes windy conditions, the course has the character of a links. Thanks to the design and the quality of green-keeping, Hulencourt has hosted several European Challenge Tour competitions and is a great hit with our clients. Seven miles south of Waterloo.

Rigenee

Par 73. 6669 yards. Slope 134.

- Nice holiday golf
- Excellent value

A slightly easier course than the others, but still a challenge, particularly if the wind blows.

There are a number of water hazards to watch out for and the bunkers are well-positioned... 'Thinking golf'. You are assured of a warm welcome from the friendly staff who also take great pride in maintaining the course in good condition. 13 miles south-east of Waterloo. Easy walking.

Other courses: Pierpont. Chateau de la Bawette. Louvain La Neuve. L'Empereur. La Bruyere.
